

MoveCallTransaction

A call to either an entry or a public Move function.

The storage ID of the package the function being called is defined in.

The name of the module the function being called is defined in.

The name of the function being called.

The function being called, resolved.

The actual type parameters passed in for this move call.

The actual function parameters passed in for this move call.

ProgrammableTransaction union